Baby Race and Tony Kart together to support Rosso's career

Baby Race is delighted to announce that Italian racer Andrea Rosso will be moving to the works Tony Kart team. The young, Turin-based driver, who will be turning 14 next October, has a great experience in the Mini and Junior categories.

In the latter class, Rosso made an amazing breakthrough with Baby Race this season by winning the prestigious WSK Super Master Series title. The move from Sandro Lorandi's team to Tony Kart increases the chances for Andrea to aim at more outstanding results. It will be an unique opportunity to work in a manufacturer team which also benefits from an excellent partnership with the Ferrari Driver Academy.

Baby Race, which uses Tony Kart-Vortex machinery, is extremely proud to see one of the team's drivers, supported and trained throughout the last few months, make such an impressive leap forward. It also confirms the extremely high quality of the work constantly carried out by the entire Baby Race operation.
