ALEX IRLANDO TAKES PART TO THE ACI KARTING ITALIAN CHAMPIONSHIP

After the good weekend in Wackersdorf, Alex Irlando continues his racing program with a race of the ACI Karting KZ2 Italian Championship in Castelletto.

Between the round of the FIA Karting KZ European Championship in Wackersdorf and the second round of the FIA Karting OK European Championship in Genk, Alex Irlando scheduled another "test-race" in Castelletto di Branduzzo, on occasion of the ACI Karting KZ2 Italian Championship.

"We were discussing about having another testing session to keep on improving the material for Sarno and then we decide to take part to the KZ2 round in Castelletto. It's has been a while since my last participation to a round of the Italian Championship, it will be a good testing ground for us. Looking forward a great weekend!"

Here is the program of the weekend.
