

PRESS RELEASE

FOLLOWING THE LATEST DECREE-LAW ON THE CORONAVIRUS, WSK DECIDED TO POSTPONE ALL THE SCHEDULED EVENTS

WSK Promotion is committed to safeguard the safety of all drivers and staff and, for sporting equity, following the latest limitations imposed by the recent Decree-Law to limit the spread of the Coronavirus, decided to postpone all the forthcoming rounds of WSK Super Master Series (due on March 15th and 22nd) and WSK Euro Series (March 29th).

Maglie (ITA), 08.03.2020

Following the recent Decree-Law issued by the Italian Prime Minister that is effective from March 8th 2020 to April 3rd 2020 and introduces limitations to contrast the diffusion of the Coronavirus infection in some big areas of the North of Italy and on the whole National territory, WSK Promotion decided to postpone the scheduled events: namely, the third round of WSK Super Master Series in La Conca (Lecce) that was due on March 12-15th 2020, the fourth round of WSK Super Master Series in Sarno (Salerno) on March 18-22nd 2020 and the opener of WSK Euro Series on March 25-29th 2020 also in Sarno.

Despite all the health and safety precautions had already been programmed in accordance to the latest decrees, the decision was taken by WSK Promotion following what decided by the Italian authorities and to safeguard the health of drivers and all staff present at WSK races but also for sporting equity as transportation is more complicated at the moment.

As soon as the situation will allow, we will communicate the new dates for the WSK Super Master Series and WSK Euro Series races.
