

IN WACKERSDORF THE LAST ROUND OF EURO OK AND OKJ

Francesco Marengi - OKJ

The last round of the OK and OK Junior European Championship is taking place in Wackersdorf, Germany, this weekend. The CRG Racing Team will take the field with 4 drivers: Rasmuss Joutsimies and Genis Civico in OK, whilst in OK Junior Francesco Marengi and the returning Francisco Soldavini, after the lockdown in Argentina.

After the first 2 races, not positive for what concern the results, the target of the team is continuing the technical development process in both categories in view of the World Championships at the end of the season. During the pre-race tests, some technical novelties were introduced and the feedback from the track were very positive, as reported by drivers and technicians.

The race schedule will start with the free practice on Thursday, then qualifying practice on Friday and qualifying heats on Saturday. The Finals on Sunday will start at 1.00 pm for the OK and 2.00pm for the Junior. Follow the race weekend with live timing and streaming on www.fiakarting.com

FOLLOW US ON INSTAGRAM @CRGFACTORY