

PRESS RELEASE

Entry lists of the WSK Champions Cup on February 21st 2021 in Adria are full

The opening meeting of the karting season at the Adria Karting Raceway, the WSK Champions Cup, is packed in all four categories MINI, OKJ, OK and KZ2.

Maglie (ITA), 11.02.2021

All is set at the Adria Karting Raceway for the first appointment with the 2021 karting campaign by WSK Promotion. The first round will be the WSK Champions Cup that will take place in the weekend of February 18-21, right after the winter tests at the circuit of Adria on February 16th and 17th.

All four categories – namely MINI, OKJ, OK and KZ2 – will display excellent numbers in the opener of the season. A very good international participation will enjoy the presence of the main manufactures, teams and drivers that will give their best to shine. The young talents of karting that came to the fore in the previous season will try and continue their growth aiming to more ambitious goals. MINI will be packed with the new FIA International homologation that added more interest to the category in 2020 and that features the youngest promises of karting. OK-Junior will also be quite crowded with several rookies coming from MINI, while the more mature OK and KZ2 will enjoy the presence of several established champions.

The event will be ran behind closed doors in the due respect of the Covid regulations with temperature check, mandatory face masks and social distancing on top of all the measures included in the latest sanitary regulations.

The program of the weekend of February 18-21:

Thursday, February 18: Scrutineering and Free Practice,

Friday, February 19: Qualifying practice and heats;

Saturday, February 20: Qualifying heats;

Sunday, February 21: Final stages with Prefinals and Finals.

Info: www.wskarting.it

WSK Promotion

Press Office

press@wsk.it

Ph. Sportinphoto

Please email press@wsk.it to receive WSK Promotion's newsletter