Already 200 drivers from 40 countries at Genk

Maglie, Italy
Friday March 29, 2024

Roughly 200 contenders representing 40 nations are scheduled to compete in the debut round of the 2024 Rotax MAX Challenge Euro Trophy.

It will be 'Genk: The Home of Champions' to host the first round of the Rotax MAX Challenge Euro Trophy from April 12th to 14th. The Belgian track, a traditional venue for the Euro Trophy, will attract drivers from all over the world.

Indeed, there will be 40 nationalities represented on the track. This makes the RMCET a global event.

The class with the most entries is Senior MAX, which counts 72 drivers, followed by Mini MAX, represented by the Belgian Cup by Mini MAX, with 47 drivers, and Junior MAX with 42. There are 39 drivers between DD2 and DD2 Masters.

Registration is still open: https://www.rotax-ems.com/anmeldung_select.php
