Walkenhorst Motorsport joins the ADAC GT Masters

- 2023 will see team from Melle in Lower Saxony competing in ADAC GT Masters for the first time

Munich. The German GT Championship has a strong new entrant: Walkenhorst Motorsport will join the ADAC GT Masters in 2023. The team from Melle in Lower Saxony is planning to race with two powerful cars. The team will announce the drivers and car designs for the Walkenhorst Motorsport debut season in the ADAC GT Masters at a later date.

In recent years, Walkenhorst Motorsport has developed an excellent reputation with successes in international GT racing. In 2018, the team won the 24h of Spa-Francorchamps, the world's greatest GT race, and celebrated victories in the Intercontinental GT Challenge. Walkenhorst becomes the second top-quality new entrant for the ADAC GT Masters 2023, joining JP Motorsport, who will be competing with a McLaren.
